How to Make Seed Balls with Suzanna Stone

supplies

- Red Clay Powder
- Compost or Potting Soil
- Wildflower Seed Mix

instructions

- Use 1 part red clay powder to 1-2 parts compost or potting soil.
- Mix the dry ingredients in a large bowl / bucket.
- Add water a little at a time until you have a clay mixture that holds its shape when you roll it
- You can keep this clay mixture moist in a plastic bag for a long time
- Your seed ball should be no bigger than a quarter and no smaller than a dime.
- Pinch off enough clay to roll a ball between your hands.
- Take a small pinch of the wildflower seed mixture and roll it into the clay ball.
- Air dry in a warm place. This usually takes 1-2 days.
- Store your seed balls in a covered container out of sunlight until you're ready to use them
- Using Your Seed Balls

You can toss a seed ball wherever you think wildflowers would grow well and be good for the pollinators and the animal and people communities.
